INTRODUCTION

Young & Co.'s 1903 Business and Professional Directory of Northeastern Indiana and Northwest Ohio contains 280 pages listing numerous selected towns in Northeastern Indiana and Northwestern Ohio.

Entries for Auburn, Butler, Garrett, and Waterloo are contained in the Directory and have been copied here.

There are no listings for Ashley, Saint Joe, Spencerville, nor other small towns.

The Directory entries are useful for the histories of the included towns at the turn of the century. The earliest directory, devoted exclusively to DeKalb County towns, was published in 1908-1909.

The index has been prepared by Roselyn Wells and Amanda Wells on behalf of the DeKalb County Genealogy Society. The original Directory page numbers have been retained for the index.
